Organization and Mission

Mars Hill Productions is a non-profit, non-denominational media ministry. Its purpose is to use media to draw people to Jesus Christ.

For 40 years, Mars Hill has produced award-winning films and videos that have been used around the world in just about every conceivable venue to communicate the love and truth of Christ with millions of people. (For more information about the ministry of Mars Hill, visit www.mars-hill.org.)

The current focus of Mars Hill is The HOPE, an 80-minute dramatic motion picture presentation of God's redemptive story from creation through Christ. The HOPE is the Gospel in metanarrative form; the "scarlet thread" of the Bible. It has been, and continues to be, so well received in the worldwide missions community that it will likely influence the course of Mars Hill for years to come. The HOPE was produced in a manner that allows it to be effectively and efficiently adapted for any language or culture. With over 68 translations completed and over 25 currently in production, God is allowing The HOPE to play a strategic role in the Great Commission. (View The HOPE online at www.thehopeproject.com. For more information on the ministry of The HOPE, visit www.hopepartnering.com.)

The primary goal of Mars Hill in this present season of ministry is to maximize the potential of The HOPE by building strategic ministry partnerships around the world to a) engage in the creation of linguistic and cultural adaptations of The HOPE, and b) facilitate the dissemination and effective use of The HOPE worldwide, particularly among unreached people groups. The HOPE is continually being updated to make it more useful and accessible to as many people as possible.
